

Educating Traumatized Children Summit

Sept 30-Oct. 10, 2014

Sign Up Today!

For Educators and Parents
Registration is FREE!

www.attachu.org/events/summit/

Topics include:

- How Trauma Impacts Learning
- Recognizing Attachment Disorder in the Classroom
- Building Trauma-Sensitive Schools
- Strategies for Reaching Traumatized Children
- Social-Emotional Competency & Resilience
- Alternatives to Public School

Speakers include:

- Jane Stevens, Founder of ACEs Connections
- Joel Ristuccia, of TraumaSensitiveSchools.org, co-author "Helping Traumatized Children Learn"
- Susan Craig, Ph.D., Educator and Author of "Reaching and Teaching Children Who Hurt"
- Heather Forbes, LCSW, founder of Beyond Consequences Institute
- And many other experts in trauma-sensitive education

With a special introduction from Dr. Robert Anda, co-founder of the Adverse Childhood Experiences (ACEs) Study

"What the science tells us about how stressed brains react to change, loss or threat is that children will often violate rules because they feel profoundly out of control."
- Chris Blodgett, director of CLEAR Trauma Center

Sponsored by

