

TRAUMA INFORMED PRACTICES COACH

JOB SUMMARY:

The Trauma Informed Practices Coach position is a two-year grant funded position, with the potential for extension, with Los Angeles Education Partnership. This position reports to the Assistant Director.

This project is designed to support and implement a trauma-informed school environment in selected K-12 schools both within and outside of California through a partnership with Kaiser Permanente. A central component of this project's approach to a trauma-informed school environment is to embed practices at each school that prioritize the wellness of school employees in order to improve their overall health and wellness. This frame helps schools to support and retain quality teachers and staff by improving their resiliency and health, while also improving schools' overall climate.

This position is responsible for providing classroom and school team consultation, leadership coaching, professional development, and coaching to implement a trauma informed approach and ensure successful program implementation at four participating schools. This position works with administrative, instructional, and non-instructional staff to develop a holistic approach that emphasizes emotional wellness for staff and students, improving the overall school climate and implementing trauma-informed systems to reduce re-traumatization, promote student and staff resilience and increase positive academic and non-academic outcomes for students. The coach provides critical thought-partnership, professional development, facilitation and consultation to school staff to support the school's development of mindsets, systems, practices, strategic planning, interventions and partnerships needed to effectively develop trauma-informed schools and systems that support student and staff well-being and resilience.

RESPONSIBILITIES:

- Work collaboratively with the school staff and community partners to implement a comprehensive trauma-informed approach to address both preventative and responsive measures for students and staff.
- Design & facilitate dynamic, sequential professional development that supports a consistent implementation throughout the school year to all school staff.
- Engage school administrators and staff in ongoing consultation and coaching that is reflective, responsive, supportive and contextual and promotes sustainable trauma-informed mindsets, systems, practices and school-community partnerships
- Provide individualized, classroom-based coaching to support teachers in building supportive relationships with students and implementing and sustaining trauma-informed practices that promote student success and empowerment.
- Coach additional school personnel to support in implementing and sustaining trauma-informed practices.
- Work with administrative district, union, and school leadership staff to ensure that policies and procedures reflect an understanding of the role of trauma in student behaviors.
- Design and lead monthly in person site visits for each site
- Facilitate ongoing technical assistance for assigned school sites via virtual and written communication
- Participate in required evaluation activities associated with the project

- Build the capacity of school sites to use data to inform decision making
