

SAVE THE DATE: December 5th, 2017

Community Intelligence, Making Connections Network and VPCGLA Present:
Understanding the Impact of Injury, Violence and Trauma
on Mental Health and Wellbeing among Women and Girls of Color

When: Tuesday, December 5th, 2017
Time: 9:00 am to 3:00 pm
Where: The California Endowment, 1000 N. Alameda Ave., LA, CA 90012 – Catalina Room
What: Join us for a half-day workshop focused on understanding the impact of injury, violence and trauma on mental health and wellbeing among women and girls of color
Presenters: Dr. Brenda Ingram, Clinical Director, Peace Over Violence; Dr. Stacey Ault, Director of Youth Development, Sacramento City Unified School District; and Kandee Lewis, Executive Director, Positive Results Corporation
Attendees: This workshop is intended for public health professionals, mental health professionals, educators/school teachers, maternal and child health advocates, family and youth service providers, housing professionals, injury prevention professionals/organizations, law enforcement, students (undergraduate and graduate), prevention specialists, alcohol/substance use prevention professionals, park and recreation personnel (e.g. Parks after Dark and Saturday Night Lights), and domestic/family/intimate partner violence professionals.
Moderator: Dr. Randal Henry, Founder/CEO, Community Intelligence; Project Director, Making Connections Network

AGENDA:

9:00 am to 9:30 am - Registration and Informal Networking

9:30 am - 10:00 am - Welcome Statement- Dr. Randal Henry

- Panelist and Commentator Introductions
- Overview of Event Agenda
- Viewing of Making Connections Video from 2.24.17
- Icebreaker - that's me.
- Icebreaker - What I hope to get from today? (if time permits)

10:00 am - 10:45 am - Presentation: "Intersectionality of Intimate Partner Violence/Domestic Violence and Trauma" discusses the interconnections of multiple identities that contribute to high rates of IPV/DV and trauma in black communities and other marginalized communities. Remedies need to include a trauma-informed approach through a lens of intersectionality: Dr. Brenda Ingram, Clinical Director, Peace Over Violence

10:45 am - 11:00 am - Interactive Discussion/Question and Answer session: Attendees will participate in an interactive discussion about the presentation.

11:00 am - 11:45 am - Presentation: Impact of Injury, Violence and Trauma on Youth Development, School Success and Future Trajectory: Dr. Stacey Ault, Director, Youth Development Services, Sacramento City Unified School District

11:45 am - 12:00 pm - Interactive Discussion/Question and Answer session: Attendees will participate in an interactive discussion about the presentation.

12:00 pm - 1:00 pm - Lunch Time and Informal Networking

1:00 pm - 2:00 pm - Presentation: The Impact of Injury, Violence and Trauma on Transitional Aged Girls of Color: Kandee Lewis, Executive Director, Positive Results Corporation

2:00 pm - 2:15 pm - Interactive Discussion/Question and Answer session

2:15 pm - 2:30 pm - Meeting adjourned

2:30 pm - 3:00 pm - Informal Networking

Registration: Early Bird = $25; Regular Entry = $40; Day of Event = $45

- <https://www.eventbrite.com/e/community-intelligence-workshop-understanding-the-impact-of-injury-violence-and-trauma-on-mental-tickets-35802858313>

Food/Amenities: Coffee, Tea and Water will be available throughout the morning/afternoon. A lunch (with vegan options) will be provided at Noon.

Participating organizations: Community Intelligence, Making Connections Network, VPCGLA, Peace Over Violence, Sacramento City Unified School District, Positive Results Corporation, and Prevention Institute