

You understand the effects of ACEs but feel overwhelmed about how to navigate the change process in your school.

October 21-24, 2018

The Trauma-Informed School: 2.0 with Lara Kain and Emily Daniels

A 3 night / 4 day retreat-style training designed for a trauma-informed school champion like you.

Join trauma-informed consultants Lara Kain and Emily Daniels for four unforgettable days amidst the fall landscape of New Hampshire.

This experience will prepare you for the journey ahead.

T O P I C S

THE STRUCTURE

Trauma-Informed Guiding Principles
"Nuts and Bolts" of Capacity Building
Drivers For and Barriers to Change
The Role of Assessment

THE PROCESS

Facilitating Change: The Essential Skills
Team Development and Dynamics
Regulating the Nervous System

About Lara Kain

Lara Kain is an experienced educator and national speaker on trauma-informed schools. She has been leading trauma-informed schools change efforts since 2010, first in Wisconsin and now the greater LA area and beyond. She designed the Trauma-Informed School Pilot for health care leader Kaiser Permanente, currently being implemented in 20 schools across the country.

About Emily Daniels

Emily Daniels is an experienced educator and counselor. She launched HERE this NOW in 2017 to help others build capacity for being trauma-informed. She educates clients in how to effectively guide process in accomplishing trauma-informed change.

Barbara C. Harris
Conference Center
Greenfield, NH
$499.00 includes
registration fee,
meals and accommodations

herethisnow.org for details