

Offered by Popular Demand

Implementing Trauma-Informed Practices in Your Classroom and School

A seminar designed for school leaders, classroom teachers, counselors, special education teachers, behavioral support specialists, and others who support student success.

SAMPLE OUTCOMES

- An understanding of Adverse Childhood Experiences (ACEs) and it's impact on learning and behavior
- Strategies to lower stress and optimize learning environments
- Techniques for building safe and productive learning communities
- Methods to use in dealing with severe disruptions and disruptive behavior
- Strategies to support teachers and deal with stress
- Strategies for effective behavior management, de-escalating behaviors, and building safe learning environments
- Methods to help you move your whole school toward a "trauma-informed school"
- Many more research-based strategies your can use immediately

Your Seminar Leader

Dr. John Eller

- Extensive experience as a school principal implementing trauma-informed practices
- Experienced trauma first-hand as a youth
- National and international author and consultant helping teachers and leaders address problems and issues.

Cost- $125 per person

Teams of 3 or more $115 per person

Date and Time: Thursday, May 2- 9:00 AM-3:00 PM

Location:

Norris Conference Center-San Antonio/Park North
618 NW Loop 401
San Antonio, TX 78216

Hurry! Registrations close on April 26.

This seminar includes:

-Practical, research-proven strategies

-A handbook of resources

-A lunch for networking and planning

For personal assistance in registering email or call:

jellerthree@gmail.com

651-247-8305

This is the only date this seminar will be offered in the region this year!

Read our most recent article "Taking on Trauma: The First Steps in Becoming a Trauma-informed School." in the Jan/Feb issue of Principal at:
<https://www.naesp.org/>