

NW Children's Foundation
presents the 2020 Forum

Community Trauma and Child Well-Being: A Deeper Dive into the Future of Healing

How can we best understand and address community trauma?
What practical tools are available for those who work with children, youth and families to start the healing process?

Washington State
Convention Center
& via Webstream

Tuesday, February 11
11:30 AM – 4:00 PM PST

In person: $40
(Includes box lunch)

Webstream: $20
(Includes on-demand viewing)

RSVP at nwcf.org
Space is limited!

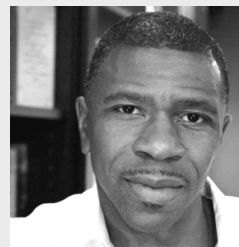

Please join us

for a conversation about community trauma and healing.

Featuring:

Shawn Ginwright, PhD

Professor of Education,
Africana Studies
San Francisco State University

Panel moderated by:

Benjamin Danielson, MD

Senior Medical Director
Odessa Brown Children's Clinic

Forum Sponsors

Leader

Alaska Children's Trust

Patrons

Haggard Childcare Resources

Mat-Su Health
Foundation

Partners

Heritage Bank
Flourish Agenda

- Delve into racism, inequality and poverty and explore more collective approaches to healing.
- Hear from a panel of community leaders who focus on healing in their approach to working with individuals, communities and systems.
- Walk away with concrete strategies that support children and youth (and the adults working with them) in a holistic, strength-based way.

Questions?

206.682.8447

or events@nwcf.org