8:00 am – 9:00 am	Breakfast &amp; Networking  Lower Atrium of the Yellowstone Conference Center
8:30 am – 9:00 am	Institute Check-In  Gallatin Ballroom
Intensive Workshops            9:00 am – 3:45 pm Includes two 15 minute breaks and a one hour break for lunch	Option 1: Positive Community Norms Intensive Seminar            A daylong, step-by-step deep dive into this proven approach to transforming community health. This day-long event will provide the information and insights you need to get a new PCN Project up and running or keep an existing effort on track for success. Highly recommended for first-time attendees. Led by Nick Adams and Heather Schjenken Option 2: Advanced Message Development Workshop            Delve into the art and science of PCN message development with hands-on, skill-building activities that will teach you to look at data from the PCN perspective and use it as the basis of messages that can effectively correct and transform misperceptions of norms. This workshop is perfect for coalitions, communities, and schools that have data from local, county, or state surveys, but aren't quite sure how to use it in a PCN effort. Led by Dr. Jason Kilmer and Sara Thompson Option 3: Advancing Applications of HOPE through the Science of the Positive            Identify and plan the spirit, science, action and returns of applying HOPE (Healthy Outcomes from Positive Experiences) in your community. Come prepared to engage with the Seven Steps of the Positive Community Norms framework to set actionable goals and strategies for integrating HOPE into your work. Led by Dr. Jeff Linkenbach, Corey Best, and Carla Ritz  [strategies to develop protective factors]* Option 4: Crafting Your Transformational Leadership Narrative            Get exclusive access to our innovative Science of the Positive Transformational Leadership Assessment to uncover your unique strengths and reveal areas for growth. Using an innovative mix of individual and group storytelling exercises, you will construct a personal leadership narrative that will help you increase your clarity and effectiveness as a community leader and change-maker. This daylong session is interactive, introspective, and inspirational. Led by Stephanie Patton and Ben Tanzer
