

Use these questions to help you start planning your book study!

10 Things to Consider

When Planning a Book Study of "What Happened to You?"

- 1 Who would you like to join your book study group?
- 2 Is there someone you would like to partner with as a co-leader (e.g., counselor, religious leader, community leader, coach, teacher, friend)?
- 3 How would you like to meet (e.g., online or in person)?
- 4 Which guide would you like to use?
 - Discussion and Resource Guide from Georgia Reads
 - WHTY Book Study Guide for educators and coaches
 - Book Club Guide for Parents from the Children's Trust Fund Alliance
- 5 Now that you know which guide you would like to use, how many meetings would you like to have?
- 6 What times would you like to meet?
- 7 Where would you like to meet (e.g., which online platform or in person location)?
- 8 Have you filled out the What Happened to You? Study Leader Registration Form?
- 9 Do you have an idea of how you might prepare for your book study? Have you registered for upcoming Children's Trust Fund Alliance (CTFA) book study events? More information and registration links can be found HERE.
 - Book Study Leader Training on Wednesday, July 27, 3-5 p.m. ET
 - Book Study Leader Check-In on Wednesday, Aug. 10, 3-4:30 p.m. ET
 - Strengthening Families™ Protective Factors Framework Overview: Moving Families From Surviving to Thriving on Tuesday, Aug. 30, noon-1:30 p.m. ET
 - Book Study Leader Check-In on Tuesday, Sept. 20, 7-8:30 p.m. ET
- 10 How do you plan to access the book? Some potential options include the following:
 - Purchase the book or audiobook
 - Read or listen to the book with a friend
 - Check out the book from your local library
 - Encourage your library to purchase the book
 - Work with non-profit organizations, schools, and/or Family Resource Centers to seek grant funding to purchase the book.