Connecting Communities One Book at a Time

This community reading initiative will help you bring your community together around books that help us have critical conversations about trauma, racism, inequity, protective factors, positive childhood experiences, and the role community plays in preventing and healing trauma and creating resiliency.

We are partnering to build on the tremendous success of the Children's Trust Fund Alliance and Georgia Essentials for Childhood, coordinated by Prevent Child Abuse Georgia and the Georgia Children's Trust Fund, which both created free guides we are excited to share with you. The guides, which were used by 40 Georgia Reads book studies and are now being used nationally, are filled with questions and ideas to help you use this book to connect with your community.

Moving Families From Surviving to Thriving: Strengthening Families Protective Factors Framework Overview by Children’s Trust Fund Alliance

Tuesday, Aug. 30, noon-1:30 p.m. ET

Many of us feel like we are just surviving the day, week and month. For too many families, this is a way of life. The conventional and traditional approach to working with families relies on a deficit approach with a concentration on risk factors. Learn about how a strength-based approach is different and how it can move families from surviving to thriving.
