

Key Principles of Developing a Trauma Informed Approach

Workshop topics include the following:

- What is trauma and how to identify it
- How trauma affects brain development
- Understanding the ACEs study
- Universal prevalence of trauma
- Building resilience
- Defining personal and community protective factors
- Four “R’s” to a trauma informed approach
- SAMHSA six pillars for trauma informed programming

THURSDAY, AUGUST 12, 2021
8:30 AM- 12:00 PM VIA ZOOM

Scan or Click here to Register

Workshop facilitated by Becky Haas, an international advocate and trainer on using a trauma informed approach and the Adverse Childhood Experiences (ACEs) study. Becky is the author of multiple sector professional development training with two receiving statewide accreditation as evidence-based training. She has been certified by the SAMHSA Gains Center as a Trainer as well as completed certification programs in Trauma and Resilience from both Florida State and Texas Christian Universities.