Structural Well-Being with the W. Haywood Burns Institute

Join Strategies TA, Safety, Prevention, and Early Intervention Branch, and CalTrin, as we welcome the W. Haywood Burns Institute, who will share their framework for Structural Well-Being. Michael Finley and Samantha Mellerson will explore the approach to frame a system of public policies, institutional and inclusive practices, cultural representations, and other norms that work to strengthen families, communities and individual well-being for positive life outcomes.

The Roadmap to Comprehensive Prevention Planning

This webinar, presented by the CDSS Safety, Prevention and Early Intervention Branch, will provide an overview of the Family First Prevention Services Program Opt In Process, the Comprehensive Prevention Plan, and the FFPS State Block Grant. Included will be an overview of the required elements and the resources available for completing the Comprehensive Prevention Plan (CPP) Template along with a preview of the state's technical assistance plan.
