MEET OUR PRESENTERS

The Human Need for Belonging

Dr. Amelia Franck Meyer is the founder and CEO of the Alia: innovations for people and systems impacted by childhood trauma. Amelia and Team Alia are leading a national movement to keep children safe with, not from, their families.

The Data of Prevention

Jennifer Rolls Reutz, MPH, is the Director of the California Evidence-Based Clearinghouse for Child Welfare and the California Training Institute (CalTrin), which support community organizations through evidence-based resources, education, and technical assistance.

The Power of Connection

Kevin A. Campbell is the Model Author of Family Finding and Lifetime Networks. Kevin's work is used on four continents to locate and engage adults into relationships of support for maltreated children.

Effective Ways to Embrace the Reality of Race, Racism Through Belonging

Corey B. Best is first, a dedicated father who recently founded "Mining for Gold". Corey has utilized his platform as a Community Curator to re-build child and family serving systems that are responsive to sharing power among constituents with a laser focus on preventing and dismantling all forms of racism.

Prevention in California: Panel Discussion

Katie Albright, attorney and children's advocate, has more than 25 years of legal and non-profit experience. She currently serves as CEO and President of Safe & Sound, a children's advocacy organization focused on strengthening families and ending child abuse.

Sheila Boxley has over two decades as President & CEO of The Child Abuse Prevention Center, dedicated to the prevention of child abuse and neglect. She serves as an appointed member on several councils and steering committees.

Dr. Ronald E. Brown has been the President & CEO of Children's Bureau since 2018. He joined Children's Bureau in 2000, where he managed the operations of Children's Bureau's foster care, adoption, mental health and child abuse prevention programs.

Angela Ponivas, MSW, is the Chief of the Office of Child Abuse Prevention, CDSS. She is a mission-driven leader who is committed to supporting child welfare in preventing harm, strengthening families, building communities and inspiring unity through authentic connection and collaboration.
