

Strategies 2.0

Growing knowledge and networks for professionals working with families.

We invite you to join us as we promote resilience in the Northern CA Region through development of “early childhood informed” communities.

Using the Centrality of Relationships as a Protective Factor in Building Resilience: Infusing Early Childhood Mental Health Principles and Practices Across the Care Continuum of Children and Families

Part III of the 4 Part Series: Introducing and Applying a Comprehensive Framework for Understanding Young Children’s Behavior

Thursday, February 20, 2020

Check-in at 12:30pm, Convening from 1:00pm to 4:00pm at Lake County Office of Education

1152 South Main St., Lakeport, CA

Remote sites: Alturas, Eureka, Redding, Mt. Shasta, Ukiah and online

This session will focus on a framework that encompasses development, individual differences, environment, culture, experience, unmet emotional needs, and trauma in young children.

Learning Community Speakers:

Barbara Ivins

USCF Clinical Director/Program Manager Early Intervention Services
USCF Benioff Children’s Hospital Oakland

SAVE THE DATES FOR COMPLETION OF THE SERIES: May 7th, 2020

Attend as many sessions as possible to take full advantage of this exceptional opportunity!

Enroll Here

Connect with us:

Facebook.com/StrategiesCA | LinkedIn-StrategiesCA.org | Twitter.com/StrategiesCA