

4th Annual Philadelphia Trauma Training Conference

Purposeful Action to Strengthen
Families, Communities & Systems

July 28 — August 30, 2020

KEYNOTE SPEAKER

Darnell L. Moore, Director of Inclusion Strategy for Content & Marketing at Netflix | Author of "No Ashes in the Fire: Coming of Age Black & Free in America"

The three-day conference provides an intense, collaborative training experience to professionals and community members invested in the health of families, neighborhoods, and communities.

- Learn about regional, national and global programs that aim to strengthen families, communities and systems.
- Develop and enhance skills and knowledge that can be readily applied to help children, families and communities heal from trauma.
- Grow interprofessional skills, and emerge motivated to work across disciplines to contribute to healthy outcomes for vulnerable children and families.

WHO SHOULD ATTEND?

Those engaged with our communities and families in the following settings:

Medical & Healthcare | Mental Health | Early Childhood | K-12 Schools & Systems | Juvenile Justice | Philanthropy | Faith Organizations | Child Welfare | Higher Education

This conference is appropriate for community members. Scholarships are available.

Presented by:

Thomas Jefferson University, College of Health Professions, Department of Counseling and Behavioral Health Department in association with:

Children's Crisis Treatment Center | Lakeside Global Institute | The University of Pennsylvania, Graduate School of Education | Philadelphia DBHIDS | Jefferson College of Population Health | Hopeworks

Also supported by:

Philadelphia ACE Taskforce

.....
Learn more at Jefferson.edu/PTTC

For more information contact:
Andrea.Imperatore@jefferson.edu.
.....

Jefferson
Thomas Jefferson University

Thomas Jefferson University, East Falls Campus
4201 Henry Avenue
Philadelphia, PA 19144