

Trafficking and Exploitation in Our Communities

Community Forum

Through a series of presentations we are raising awareness of the local problem of sex trafficking and will offer solutions to protect against commercial sexual exploitation.

June 15, 2017 • 7PM - 9PM

Ukiah United Methodist Church Social Hall

205 North Bush St., Ukiah

(Admission is Free)

Open to all community members, including children 12 years and over with a trusted adult.

Community members can play a vital role in the eradication of sex trafficking in their area. You will be introduced to the issue of sex trafficking and learn about the traffickers, the buyers, and the victims. Elle Snow, founder of Game Over, will explain what you can do, as well as what you should not do.

Space is limited to 120 seats. To reserve seating, please click on the following link to register: <https://www.eventbrite.com/e/trafficking-and-exploitation-in-our-communities-community-forum-tickets-34802157189>
