b. Resource Committee – Morgan Baskett/Cambria Walsh
Announced survey to be emailed this afternoon from SDTIGT Resource@gmail.com. The information gathered will include member areas of expertise and interest around trauma-informed care as well as contact information. This will allow for better opportunities for members to network, collaborate, and learn from each other. Information collected will be translated into a directory which will be housed in ACEs Connection San Diego Community and available to Guide Team members only. Members have 2 weeks to complete survey (opt in). Plan is to launch the directory in July.

c. Training Committee – Craig Beswick/Melissa Tran-Chamblin Training database of local trainers will be posted soon on ACEs and will be available to all in community. Contact Melissa if interested in being on list.

V. Announcements/Achievements

- a. Strengthening Community Trust Symposium - Family & Youth Support Partner Initiative, July 18/19, 2018, Marina Village

Linda shared about the upcoming symposium in July, highlighting of the different roles and functions of Family Support Partners. This is a partnership with the Diversity Development Center, NAMI and Aces Connection. Call for speakers – respond ASAP if interested! They are looking for interactive 75 min workshops with director and partner – or 45 min feature presentations; see posting on ACEs connection: <http://www.acesconnection.com/g/san-diego-county-aces-connection-group/blog/strengthening-community-trust-symposium-family-and-youth-support-partner-initiative>.
