

Intake Interview Summary

Aggregate Indicator Data for clients served between 1/1/16 and 12/31/17

What concerns do you have?

Date	If other, please specify
1/4/16	Mom feels she needs the help of professionals to point her in the right direction, to help her find the right services and to help her set up the necessary appointments. She is not sure where to go to get the right help for her son.
1/11/16	Client stated during interview she is concerned for her son's physical health as well as his emotional well being.
1/11/16	(Including baby supplies)
1/25/16	Verbal abuse
1/27/16	Depression
2/1/16	Getting enough sleep to keep from getting sick.
3/14/16	Needing time to get things done, or to herself while still making sure her son is safe and engaged. Mom feels like she is juggling a lot and would love her son to have a safe place to be while she either works or engages in self care.
3/28/16	Emotional/verbal abuse

Intake Interview Summary

Aggregate Indicator Data for clients served between 1/1/16 and 12/31/17

Date	If other, please specify
5/2/16	Her family is just getting settled. She is learning what kind of services are around. She has no real concerns yet. Overall feels safe, good and excited about her family's new adventure.
5/26/16	Client could use help in other areas but she did not want to go into detail about that. She only wanted to get help with housing right now. After she is more settled she can think about other things.
6/15/16	Anger management
6/20/16	No "concerns" just came to check up out.
6/22/16	Co-parenting counseling RE: family
6/24/16	After School Tutoring/activities
7/12/16	"just PDI" for now
9/22/16	"Sanity"
10/17/16	Looking for a time to do her work, separate from her child
11/8/16	Grieving loss of child.
11/9/16	Client has an acute need for additional options for childcare during the Christmas holiday break. Her ex has said she has to take their daughter, but A. has to work. She cannot afford a nanny to help during those two weeks. It's unclear why the father cannot continue to do 50/50 during that time.
1/10/17	Want to make sure the children get time to socialize.
1/31/17	A place to take a break. She expressed not having many other parent-friends.
4/27/17	sexual assault
5/18/17	Mental health of partner
6/15/17	Education and activities for her child.
7/12/17	Grief
9/13/17	Alzheimer's support
9/28/17	Want to use the playroom because her daughter has a lot of energy and sometimes they "need a break" from each other.
9/29/17	No actual concerns, just looking for a place her daughter can be engaged when they need a break from each other.
10/3/17	Assistance with food, clothing, and water (drinking and for hygiene use)
10/17/17	Having a place that is safe that she can bring her daughter.
12/6/17	Looking for DV resources but feels that DV is not present. When parents were using their was a lot of yelling, but this has dropped away as parents work to stay clean.

Intake Interview Summary

Aggregate Indicator Data for clients served between 1/1/16 and 12/31/17

Risk Factors

