Bridges to Resilience is a conference for anyone who works with children, youth and families, has an interest in the science of Adverse Childhood Experiences (ACEs), and has the goal of building a resilient and resourceful community. Educators, early care providers, social workers, probation officers, law enforcement, health and mental health professionals, resource families, and community partners will have the opportunity to network and learn from experts in the field.

Laura Porter

Keynote Speaker

Laura has more than a decade of experience leading successful implementation of ACE Study concepts in Washington State in partnership with over 30 communities and nine Tribes. She was featured in the film Resilience for her work. She and Dr. Robert Anda founded ACE Interface to help leaders to use ACE concepts to build Self-Healing Communities.

CONFERENCE OUTCOMES:

- Building a trauma-informed and resiliency-focused community
- Facilitating strong connections between schools, families, and community partners
- Increasing knowledge of resources and tools for prevention and early intervention
- Inspiring, engaging, and invigorating the work force
- Improving outcomes for children, youth, and families
