Expanding the Prevention Culture: Father Engagement

Presented by Shawndi Johnson, MSW

Learn how to recognize and celebrate a father's important role in every child's development. Enhance your understanding of how to engage fathers in family strengthening work and ensure that program practices include them as partners in supporting child, family and community well being.

Lived Experience Panel - parent partners share their experience as family strengthening program participants

Expand your perspective by hearing from parent partners about their experience receiving supportive services. Learn from concrete examples about what provided the biggest impact for parents, how they serve as champions for other parents, and the importance of relationships in child abuse prevention.
