

Honoring Dr. Martin Luther King Jr.

Monday, January 15th, 2024

Walk with Me- March for the Dream, begins at 8 AM

The March for the Dream is the largest community gathering in Sacramento to honor the ideals and values of Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. and put them into practice. This is a free, in person event.

Click here to learn more.

Tuesday, January 16th, 2024

Healing Resistance: Trauma Healing and Social Change in an Era of Global Rupture, 12-1:30 PM PST

Join us for an engaging discussion led by author Kazu Haga on the ways resistance movements can contribute to collective healing. Explore the impact of global crises while acknowledging the rise of social movements advocating for justice and equality. Participate in meaningful conversations on navigating the complexities of our contemporary reality in light of Dr. King's teachings.

Register here.

National Day of Racial Healing, All Day

The National Day of Racial Healing is a time to contemplate our shared values and create the blueprint together for #HowWeHeal from the effects of racism. Launched in 2017, it is an opportunity to bring ALL people together in their common humanity and inspire collective action to create a more just and equitable world.

Click here to learn more.

Wednesday, January 17th, 2024

Virtual Community Building Circle, 6-7:30 PM PST

We invite you to participate in a virtual space to gather together and build the Beloved Community, rooted in compassion and our shared humanity. We look forward to connecting with you!

Register here.

Friday, January 26th, 2024

Interprofessional Book Club: Hate in the Homeland: The New Global Far Right by Cynthia Miller-Idriss, 12-1:30 PM PST

Take part in the UC Davis Campus Community Book Project's 22nd-year dialogue on "Hate in the Homeland: The New Global Right" by Cynthia Miller-Idriss. The book explores community-based strategies to address youth marginalization and the search for belonging.

Sessions, fostering interdisciplinary dialogue will be led by Dr. Jann Murray-García from the Betty Irene Moore School of Nursing. Open to all, reading the book is not required but encouraged!

Register here.

January
15th-26th,
2024

In honor of the annual National Day of Racial Healing presented by the W.K. Kellogg Foundation, we are highlighting various events designed to unite our community, foster trust, and promote the advancement of racial equity.