Implementing Effective Evidence-Informed Practices in Family Strengthening and Child Abuse Prevention Programs. Presented by Charles Wilson, MSSW, Senior Director of the Chadwick Center for Children and Families and Director of the California Evidence-Based Clearinghouse (CEBC)

Increase your understanding of evidenced-based models for preventing child maltreatment. Learn the difference between the California Evidence-Based Clearinghouse (CEBC) and the Title IV-E Prevention Services Clearinghouse. Explore ways to use the Protective Factors Survey to assess family strengths and identify programs to enhance well being. Engage with colleagues in an activity to enhance your ability to navigate and use the California Evidence-Based Clearinghouse (CEBC) resources.

Participate in a panel discussion with San Diego organizations serving children and families. Learn from concrete examples of how programs are preventing child abuse and neglect their communities. Dialogue about how to sustain successful programs and innovate to meet the evolving needs of children and families.
