

JOIN US FOR A

VIRTUAL DISCUSSION

ON

THE LITTLE BOOK OF RACE AND RESTORATIVE JUSTICE

BY FANIA E. DAVIS

This important work by social activist Fania E. Davis addresses the intersectionality of race and the US criminal justice system. In this timely book, Davis explores the capacity of restorative justice to disrupt patterns of mass incarceration through effective, equitable, transformative and healing approaches.

FOUR VIRTUAL SESSIONS:

- Session 1: Wednesday, March 10th, 6:30 to 8 PM-
The journeys of restorative and racial justice; indigenous ethos
- Session 2: Wednesday, March 17th, 6:30 to 8 PM-
Integrating restorative justice and racial justice
- Session 3: Wednesday, March 24th, 6:30 to 8 PM-
Racial disparities and restorative justice in schools
- Session 4: Wednesday, March 31st, 6:30 to 8 PM-
Transforming mass incarceration, toward a racial reckoning and a way forward

SPACE IS LIMITED, SO PLEASE RSVP AS SOON AS POSSIBLE BY SENDING AN EMAIL TO HAZEL@YOLOCRC.ORG WITH "BOOK DISCUSSION" IN THE SUBJECT LINE.

YCRC

YOLO CONFLICT RESOLUTION CENTER